

REPORT OF COUNSELLING PROGRAMME ON “NEOURO-LINGUISTIC PROGRAMMING FOR BETTER CAREER DEVELOPMENT” IN COLLABORATION WITH ASSAM DOWN TOWN UNIVERSITY, GUWAHATI

The Career Guidance & Counselling Cell, IGGC, Tezu organized a counselling programme on “Neuro-Linguistic Programming for better career development” in collaboration with Assam down town University, Guwahati, for B.A./B.Com./B.Sc. VI semester students of the college on 30th April 2024 at room no. 11 cum conference hall of the academic block.

The programme began with the reception of the guests, namely Shri Rahul Bhardwaj, Deputy Manager, Assam down town University, Guwahati, and Shri Animesh Singh, Marketing Officer, Assam down town University, Guwahati, along with Dr M.K. Jana, Associate Professor cum Head, Department of Commerce, IGGC, Tezu, to the conference hall at 10:00 AM With this, the guests did light of lamp to begin the formal programme. It was followed by welcome address from the coordinator, CG & C Cell, Dr Jeevantu Tikhak, and duly followed by address from Dr M.K. Jana, who attended the programme on behalf of the Principal who could not turn up due to some urgent preoccupation.

Later, the resource person Shri Rahul Bhardwaj took over the session on NLP for better career development in detail. The session was engaging and it took the 137 students to the core discussion of the subject, as shared by one of the students. The session was followed by interactive session on NLP where the students were given an opportunity to clarify their doubts from the resource person.

The programme came to an end with vote of thanks from Deputy Coordinator, Mrs. Nili Linggi which was followed by light refreshment.

